Ensuring Teacher Fluency in English

Manchester City Schools ensures fluency in English by screening ESL teacher applicants using an English fluency rubric. An applicant's oral language and written communication are scored during the interview process. A review of the applicant's college transcripts ensures fluency in reading.

Name_____

Please write a brief paragraph describing a memorable experience you have had working with a limited English proficient student.